

MAPS Church Covenant

(Missionary Adventure Prayer Squad)

This covenant is an agreement between the church identified below and the MAPS Program for the faithful use of the MAPS curriculum and resources. By signing below, the church leadership commits to uphold the following standards as part of their partnership in raising the next generation of missionaries and missionary supporters.

Commitments of the Church

- Faithful Use of Curriculum
 - Use the MAPS curriculum as designed for a minimum of one year before making any modifications.
 - Respect the intent of the program by teaching both missionary and supporter roles clearly and consistently.
 - Respect and abide by the MAPS Statement of Faith and Missionary definition.
- Protection of Materials
 - No reproduction, distribution or sharing of MAPS curriculum or resources outside of the local church without written permission from MAPS leadership.
 - Ensure that all digital and printed materials are used exclusively for the ministry of the signing church.
- Missionary Partnership
 - Assign one Missionary Partner for each supported missionary, ensuring that every missionary represented in the MAPS program receives consistent communication, prayer and support.
- Program Reporting
 - Report student graduations from the MAPS program to MAPS leadership so that their impact can be celebrated and tracked.
 - Provide simple yearly feedback on how MAPS is being used in the church and its fruitfulness.
- Church Support
 - Uphold the mission of MAPS through prayer and faithful stewardship.
 - Encourage families and children to actively participate in both learning about and supporting missionaries.

Commitments of MAPS Leadership

- Provide churches with curriculum, updates and guidance for the effective use of the program.
- Encourage and equip churches in cultivating a strong missions culture for children and families.
- Celebrate and share testimonies of how God is at work through MAPS with local church and with MAPS when appropriate, with the permission of anyone involved in the story.

Agreement

By signing below, we affirm our commitment to the MAPS Church Covenant and agree to use the MAPS curriculum in good faith for the building up of the next generation of missionaries and missionary supporters.
